Buttons/Tree View

- "New Container" button allows user to create item/container with name, price, length, width, height, x and y values

- "Change Container" button allows user to change all above attributes and auto fills with previous container information

- "Add Container to Existing Container" button allows for a new container to be nested inside a previously made container

- "Delete Container" buttons removes container from the farm view and tree view